Each party, therefore, agrees to make the contributions to the various funds as required by this Article for each hour worked for all employees covered by this Agreement as those payments become due and payable by the Employer on or before the 20th day of the month following the month in which the hours were worked.
- 16.7 Such contributions, plus check-off union dues per Section 4.3, shall be made by the Employer to such bank as may be designated by the Union or as hereafter determined pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

In addition to the remedies set forth herein, the Union shall be free (notwithstanding an express or implied, 'no strike' clause in this Agreement) to strike and picket any Employer failing to make any payment of money required by this Agreement; provided however, that such right shall not be exercised until the matter has been address directly and through Step 2 of Article 17, Dispute Settlement and Arbitration.

- 16.9 The Employer agrees to furnish such information and reports as may be required in the performance and administration of these various Funds. The Trustees, or their representatives, of each of said funds shall have the right at all reasonable times during business hours to enter upon the premises of the Employer to examine and copy such of the books, records, papers, and reports of the Employer relating to the hours and wages of employees as may be required to determine if the provisions of this Agreement are being complied with. If it is determined that this Collective Bargaining Agreement is not being complied with, then the cost of such examination shall be paid by the Employer. Non-compliance would be the underpayment by either wages (including vacation pay and holiday pay) or any fund payments by five percent (5%) or more in the period audited; cost of a noncompliant examination shall be paid by the Employer.
